It's Time for Tapas, Massages and New Year's Celebrations!

Laid-Back Yoga

It sounds terrible, but sometimes (read: around the holidays) even yoga takes too much energy. If you feel our pain, check out Chaan Thai yoga massage at Chaan Thai Yoga Therapy in Fairfax, which takes relaxation to the next level.

Sure, downward dog feels great. But with this technique, the practitioner puts you into yoga positions that improve flexibility, stimulate circulation and ease tension. It's not called "lazy man's yoga" for nothing!

The studio also offers Chaan Thai herbal poultice massage, with stretching, acupressure and hot Thai herbs to relax you and boost energy, and other therapies. In January, clients can get a one-hour service half price after buying two hour-long services.
